Phoenix's Fairytale Brownies hosting gooey event for abused and at-risk children.

WHAT: Fairytale Brownies, the nationally-acclaimed gourmet brownie company famous for "a taste of pure enchantment" is hosting a brownie-making event for 20 underprivileged children from Free Arts of Arizona, Child Crisis Center, and Lighthouse. The community outreach program is part of a full day's activities for the 16-year-old Phoenix company, culminating with an appearance on the Food Network's show, "Unwrapped," at 9 p.m.

WHEN: MONDAY, April 20, 2009
12 p.m. – 2 p.m.

WHERE: FAIRYTALE BROWNIES
4610 E. Cotton Center Blvd., Suite 100
Phoenix (Just SE of Broadway and the 143)

VISUALS: 15-20 kids will be unleashing their creativity on 1-lb. take-home brownie trays, adorning them with nuts, toffee, cream cheese, peanut butter, chocolate chips & chunks, and all the delectable fixings that have made Fairytale Brownies recognized as one of America's best brownies.

Spokespeople from Fairytale Brownies and Free Arts will be available for on-camera interviews.
